English; the first and second years in Mathematics and Natural and Physical Sciences. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts may substitute two years in Hebrew for two years in either Latin or Greek. The fourth year of Greek may be substituted for the third year of Latin, or the fourth year of Latin for the third year of Greek; the fourth year of English may be substituted for the second year of either Mathematics or Natural Science; the third year of Natural Science may be substituted for the second year.

The Literary Course, which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Literature, comprises four years in English; the first and second years in Mathematics and Natural Science; and the first, second, and third years in Latin. A candidate for this degree may substitute two years in Greek for two years in Latin; two years in French or German may also be substituted for one year in Mathematics and one year in Natural Science.

The Scientific Course, which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science, comprises the first, second, and third years in English and Philosophy; the first, second, third, and fourth years in Mathematics; three years in Natural Science; and two years in French. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Science may substitute for the two years in French two years in German; for one year in English and one year in Mathematics may be substituted two years in either Latin or German.

The Master's degree in either of the above courses will be conferred upon the following conditions:

1. That the candidate shall have received, at least one year before, a Bachelor's degree from this School or from an institution of equal grade.
2. That he shall have completed, by examination, all the substitutions tabulated in the course of study for which the Master's degree is desired.
3. That he shall have completed, to the satisfaction of the Faculty, a prescribed course in History, Literature, and Philosophy, depending upon the degree desired.

CERTIFICATES IN MUSIC, ELOCUTION, AND ART.

Certificates of proficiency will be given to each student completing the work tabulated under the headings "Music," "Elocution," and "Art."
